

Making Spring Cards

Red Room became artists when they made flower cards for spring. Using celery sticks taped together, Red Room used paints to make beautiful flower prints on their cards to celebrate the start of spring. The effect was shapes like flower petals on the paper. Red Room have been taking about the changes in the environment we are seeing now that the spring is arriving—how the weather gets warmer, more leaves grow on the trees, and how lots of baby animals are born!

