

Red Room Celebrates World Book Day

Red Room celebrated World Book Day by dressing up as some of their favourite story characters. There were princesses, super heroes and monsters! Red Room read some of their favourite stories throughout the day, and talked about why they reading books. Red Room were also lucky enough to be visited by the author Laura Henry-Allain, who wrote the books Jojo and Gran Gran. Laura read the children in Red Room a story about how Jojo and Gran Gran went to the farm to see some baby chicks. The children really enjoyed listening to the story about the animals, and talked about their favourite animals also!