

A tape measure to measure new curtains, furniture and so on.

Stand in front of a full-length mirror and talk about heights, tall, short, taller, shorter etc.

A wall height chart for children to record their heights.

A weighing scales (with a dial) and talk about weights.

Above all have fun while you are learning.

How to help your child learn Mathematics at home.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

Item	Price
POTATO	7.50
BERRIES	5.79
PEPPERS	10.99
EGGS	8.99
	5.39
Total	132.78
Change	2.25
Grand Total	135.03

Offer your child the following to count:
Washing line pegs to count.

Count cupfuls or spoonfuls of flour or rice.

Old toy telephones and mobile phones and telephone number cards, for example,
'Nursery: 0121 359 2309',

Tea pot, cups, jugs to encourage children to use vocabulary such as 'full' and 'empty'.

At

meal times, hand your child plates, bowls, spoons knives and forks—ask your child to count and match one piece to each person.

Call your child's attention to your house number and encourage him/her to say your house number when you are leaving and arriving at home.

Give your child different size wooden spoons and pans and encourage him/her to talk about the sizes, big, small etc.

